TITLE 60. BUSINESS -- MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

60.101. SHORT TITLE.

This Title may be cited as the Business -- Miscellaneous Provisions Code.

60.102. PURPOSE.

The purpose of this Title is to prescribe specific rules, direction and interpretations for various identified provisions of Tribal law that are related to implementation of the Tribal Comprehensive Business Code.

60.103. COMMERCIAL LAND LEASES.

(a) Policy and Purpose.

- (i) This section prescribes the provisions for implementing Section 10.10 of the Tribal Land Assignment Ordinance, Title 10 of the Hoopa Valley Tribal Code. It is the policy of the Tribe to allow the use of tribal lands for the propose of implementing the provisions of the Tribal Comprehensive Business Code, to the extent that such lands are utilized to the benefit of the Tribe, the lessee and the residents of the Reservation.

- (ii) Tribal commercial assignment are intended to provide for use of such lands by the lessee in accordance with the terms of the lease that, while such lands may be used to establish a security interest in such lands by the lessee, nothing in this Code shall be construed to subject such lands to alienation of tribal ownership in any manner.
- (iii) To the extent that a security interest is necessary for utilizing the lands for business development purposes, and to the extent that such purposes and use of the land is consistent with the lease and this Code, lands subject to a commercial lease of the Tribe may be utilized for purposes of implementing this Code.

(b) Terms of Commercial Leases.

Consistent with the Tribal policy of employment in lieu of taxes, lands controlled by a commercial assignment issued by the Tribe under the terms and conditions of the Tribal Comprehensive Business Code and the Tribal Land Assignment Ordinance shall be issued for a term of $1.00 for each twenty-five year term, with an option to renew, provided, however, that such lands continue to be utilized for fulfilling the purposes of the Tribal Comprehensive Business Code.

(c) Penalty for Unused Leased Lands.

If for any reason that the lessee does not utilize the leased tribal property provided under this Code for a period of 1 year from the anniversary date of the lease, the lessee shall pay a lease fee to the Tribe an amount of $500.00 per month for each month that leased land is not utilized for the prescribed purpose. The Director of Commerce, however, may waive such lease fee upon the lessee submitting sufficient documentation that demonstrates beyond a reasonable doubt that the land has been or will be used for its intended purpose within a reasonable time frame.

(d) Lessee's Option for Reducing Monthly Fee.

At his or her option, the lessee may hire at his or her cost a qualified appraiser to conduct an appraisal of lands subject to the commercial lease such documentation that demonstrates beyond a reasonable doubt that an amount of less than $500 is more appropriate for the monthly charge for such lands.

- (e) Nothing in this section is intended nor shall be construed as permitting any lessee to hold lands under a commercial lease without utilizing such lands for its intended purpose as provided in the lease. Further, nothing in this section is intended nor shall be construed as permitting any lessee to maintain control over any lands controlled under a commercial lease which are not being utilized or are planned to be utilized for business development purposes provided for in this Code.

- (f) The Tribal Department of Commerce, in conjunction with the Tribal Land Department, is authorized to enforce the terms of commercial leases entered into pursuant to this Code and the Tribal Land Ordinance.

60.104. COMMERCIAL AGRICULTURAL LEASES.

The Section 9 of the Tribal Land Ordinance is amended to provide that no residential lease may preempt a commercial agricultural lease when the agricultural lease is being used to promote employment and business opportunities.

60.105. MULTI-YEAR AND LONG-TERM RESOURCE USE PERMITS.

- (a) In order to facilitate the creation and maintenance of business and employment opportunities for business, the tribe, tribal members and Reservation residents, the Tribal Council may, when appropriate, enter into multiple-year and long term leases and permits for use of tribal resource, property and other agreements with businesses as provided by tribal laws and regulations.
- (b) Leases and permits issued under this Code shall include provisions for:
 - (i) The date by which the resource will become available;
 - (ii) For permits and leases for resources that require annual allocations of resources, the date by which the resource will become available each year;
 - (iii) The total volume of resources covered by the lease or permit by total or annual amount;
 - (iv) If applicable, the price of the resource covered by the lease and permit (taking into consideration the employment in lieu of taxing policy); and
 - (v) Environmental considerations (if any) that will be made part of the lease or permit.

60.106. PER CAPITA ORDINANCE EXEMPTION FOR TRIBAL EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS TAX EXEMPTION FOR EMPLOYMENT AND RELATED TRAINING FUNDS.

For purposes of the Tribal Per Capita Ordinance, Title _____ of the Tribal Code, the Tribal Employment Rights Tax funds that are designated for employment and employment related training or that are specifically designated for training activities to implement the Tribal Comprehensive Business Code and any of its Titles are exempt from the provisions of the Ordinance.

60.107. PER CAPITA ORDINANCE EXEMPTION FOR TRIBAL EDA REVOLVING LOAN FUND.

Consistent with the spirit and intent of the EDA Revolving Loan Fund to stimulate and promote business and employment opportunities, the EDA Loan Funds are hereby exempted from the provisions of the Tribal Per Capita Ordinance, Title _____ of the Tribal Code.

60.108 TRIBAL CONSTRUCTION TAX ORDINANCE EXEMPTION.
